With featured clinicians:
ELIZABETH GUTIERREZ
SUSAN PARADIS

Friday, June 27, 2014
RBC Music Company
San Antonio, TX

Open to independent piano teachers or future
teachers of all abilities, backgrounds and experience

ELIZABETH GUTIERREZ has years of experience teaching piano, piano pedagogy, and piano literature to undergraduate and graduate students at the University of Wisconsin-Madison and the University of Texas at San Antonio. She has given numerous workshops and master classes to working independent teachers around the globe and is a composer/author of popular piano publications.

SUSAN PARADIS graduated from the University of South Carolina with a BA in Music and an MM in Music Education. Her experience as a classroom music teacher and music therapist has helped her develop a successful "hands on" curriculum for teaching piano to all students.

- ♪ Four intensive 1.5 hour sessions focusing on: a logical approach to teaching scales, tips and tutorials for building better readers, engaging lesson activities that keep students returning for more, and rewarding, moral-boosting piano pieces students can master quickly.
- ♪ Demonstration of example repertoire
- ♪ Useful teaching tips and techniques you can take right to the studio
- ♪ Opportunity for Q&A and exchange of ideas with your colleagues
- ♪ Door prizes from your favorite publishers
